I hope your CISA preparation is going well. I plan to take my exam in mid- to late-February 2020 and wanted to plan the next few months of studying. I spent August and September going through the review manual and typing up notes, and I've now started on working through questions from the QAE book (purchased the hard copy, not database).

QAE (Questions And Answers) is also referred to as the "test bank," "QAE database," and "questions database." This is true of the QAE for all ISACA certs. A lot of reviews have said that the ISACA cert exam prep books are difficult to read (i.e., dry), not helpful, and the QAE database is a better way to go.
