CLOVER, COUNTRY COOKING, & MIRACLE PEACH COBBLER: Just-For-Fun Book Review. by Maria Virginia - November 17, 2019. CLOVER by Dori Sanders, was the first book to call to me from my recently unpacked library. I love the cover. It reminds me of the original cover of JAMES AND THE GIANT PEACH. Clover suffered a parental loss similar to James's, a somewhat typical plot device in children's novels.

Kenneth L. Donelson and Allieen Pace Nilsen's Literature for Today's Young Adults defines young adult literature as any book freely chosen by someone between twelve and twenty (p. 2). This certainly describes Dori Sanders' Clover (1990). Narrated by ten-year-old Clover Hill, the book has been marketed for adults but enjoyed by teenagers as well.
