Sleep Donation Ebook Karen Russell

If Karen Russell isn't careful, she might end up pegged as an SF writer. From the fabulist worlds of her debut, St. Lucy's Home for Girls Raised by Wolves, to the whimsical realities of many stories in 2013's Vampires in the Lemon Grove, much of Russell's fiction feels utterly at home in the annals of 21st-century science fiction and fantasy. Enter Sleep Donation, which takes as its premise the

Karen Russell doesn't beat around the bush—she launches us into the sleep-deprived world of Sleep Donation right from the get go. We find ourselves in a quasi-dystopian but very familiar world. It's a reality not so far removed from ours, populated with human behaviour patterns that feel authentic, even if they arise from a nation-wide - perhaps even worldwide - insomnia epidemic.
