The High Frontier:
Human Colonies in Space is a 1976 book
by Gerard K. O'Neill, a road map for what the United States might do in outer space after the Apollo program, the drive to place a man on the Moon and beyond.
It envisions large
manned habitats in the Earth-Moon system,
especially near stable
Lagrangian points.

THE HIGH FRONTIER is an excellent book on the practicality and economics of the human colonization of space -- very entertaining to read and full of interesting technical information. It is the classic work on the subject -- highly regarded by folks such as Carl Sagan, Isaac Asimov, and Thomas Paine (former administrator of NASA).
